

AHTA HIGH PERFORMANCE CLINIC

NOVEMBER 4/5, 2017

CLINICIAN: MATT BROWN

The final AHTA HP Clinic of the year is being held at Rose Bush Equestrian Center, Sturgeon County, AB. Matt Brown, from Pennsylvania, is returning as our clinician.

Matt's resume includes being named to the US High Performance Elite Development squad earlier this summer. As well as "October of 2015 marked a milestone for Matt when he was the top-placed US rider at the Boekelo CCI03* in the Netherlands, as well as a member of the Silver Medal US Nations Cup team there. Boekelo was the highlight of a breakout year for Matt that included being named as an alternate to the Pan American Games team, as well as several top finishes on multiple horses in CIC3* and CCI3*s across North America. In 2016, Matt completed his first CCI4* at the Rolex Kentucky Three-Day Event as the highest-placed rookie, and had the honor of being named as a reserve for the 2016 Rio Olympic Games US Eventing Team. In June 2016, Matt was named to the Land Rover US Eventing Team for Aachen CICO3*, where he helped the team secure their 6th place finish in July. In November 2016, Matt and Super Socks BCF won the competitive Ocala Jockey Club International CIC3*" From Matt's website www.eastwesttrainingstables.net
