

Gary Brewster Bio

Gary Brewster is one of Canada's brightest stars for the future of Equestrian Show Jumping. Having come up through the ranks of the sport, Gary is now a mainstay figure in the Grand Prix Jumper ring. Deliberate, consistent discipline defines Gary's program for success. Gary competes at numerous venues throughout the United States and Canada. Gary's incredible work ethic, pleasant demeanor and honest ways are a breath of fresh air in today's sports industry. His students enjoy his highly personalized and focused lessons. And his positive and patient style make him enjoyable for a wide cross section of hunter and jumper clients.

