

Leah Breakey Bio

With a professional eventing career spanning over the last decade, Leah Breakey has dedicated her time to working and learning from top Canadian Team riders Sandra Donnelly and James Atkinson, as well as, Canadian Team Coach Clayton Fredericks.

Over this time Leah has developed multiple horses to the 4 star level and not only has experience competing at the upper levels but in starting and training young event horses.

Currently Leah is based in Ponoka, Alberta as head jump coach at Extreme Stables.

