

Mary D'Arcy is a Level V certified coach, faculty member, and assessor for the Eventing Coaches Program (ECP). She is a USCCE certified coach developer and a British Horse Society Instructor. D'Arcy coaches riders in eventing from Beginner Novice to Advanced, as well as riders at all levels in show jumping and dressage. She has coached dressage riders to their bronze, silver and gold medals. D'Arcy has coached at World and European Championships and at the major international events. Her achievements include serving as the Irish eventing team coach for the 2000 Sydney and 2004 Athens Olympic Games, coaching individuals at the Atlanta Olympic Games in 1996, and coaching the gold medal-winning Irish team at the FEI European Young Rider Championships in Achwelswang, Germany, in 1995.

