

Sabrina Glaser Bio

Sabrina is a Canadian International Advanced level Event rider who began her journey at the International level in 2004 (she began competing in 1989) and has been named to the Canadian Equestrian Team training list 8 times! Since selling her last advanced partner Rembrandt, Sabrina has enjoyed bringing along young horses again. Most recently she produced two to the FEI 3* level with multiple top placings on both West and East coast.

Some of her notable achievements include:

- Winner of the 2023 CCI3*-L Galway Downs Eventing Championships
- Winner of the 2019 Rebecca Farms FEI CCI4*-S
- Winner of the Adequan USEA Advanced Gold Cup 2 consecutive years
- 3 time winner of USEA Blue Ribbon award (each received for 3 or more top 3 finishes in a year on the same horse)
- Top 3 placing at multiple FEI 4* competitions on 2 different horses
- Placed at the Advanced American Eventing Championships in Kentucky
- Winner of "Fittest horse Award" at Chase Creek Three day event

A passion for horses, sport and Olympics have been fueled throughout Sabrina's life by her rich equestrian heritage. Her parents produced many horses, one of which was Adonis, who competed at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics. She has also drawn inspiration from her Great Aunt and Uncle who represented Switzerland in Olympic Show Jumping multiple times.

Coaching is Sabrina's other passion; she became a certified High Performance Competition Coach in 2001. By continuing to operate her business, Excalibur Equestrian, in Langley, BC while pursuing Eventing at the International level, she hopes to inspire young athletes in her community.

